11. Pursuant to Civil Rights Law §64-a, I request that I be exempted from the requirements that my change of name be published because publication would jeopardize my personal safety. Publication would publicly out me as a transgender person and violence against transgender people permeates our society. According to a recent Report of the National Coalition of Anti-Violence Programs (2002), “the number of reported incidents [in New York City] involving anti-transgender bias has continued to rise (21%) in 2001, and anti-transgender bias is now present in 13% of all bias incidents.” The Washington Transgender Needs

Assessment, conducted by Gender Education and Advocacy, found that 43% of the transgender individuals surveyed had been a victim of violence or crime, with 75% attributing a motive of transphobia or homophobia to the violence. Should the Court deny this request, I ask that, for the same reasons, I be permitted to omit my address from the notice of publication. [IF YOU DO NOT THINK PUBLICATION WOULD ENDANGER YOUR SAFETY, CROSS THIS PART OUT. IF YOU HAVE OTHER REASONS WHY YOU THINK PUBLICATION WOULD ENDANGER YOUR SAFETY, ADD THEM.]

12. Should the Court deny my request to be exempted from the publication requirement, I request that the Court's order permit that notice shall be published in _____ (newspaper), a designated newspaper in the County of _____. The reason for such request is that it would result in financial hardship for me to publish in a newspaper that charges more expensive rates.
13. Should the Court find this petition deficient in any aspect, I respectfully request leave to renew the application with additional information as the Court may require.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner respectfully prays that an Order be granted permitting this requested change of name.
